SUSTAINABLE
INSTITUTIONS OF INDIA.
GREEN RANKINGS 2025

RECENT PRESS RELEASE
WITH POTENTIAL REACH 69,28,19,234

New Delhi [India], March 21: R. World Institutional Ranking (R. W I Ranking) proudly announces the release of the much-anticipated Green Rankings 2025, honoring India's top institutions that exemplify exceptional commitment to sustainability, eco-conscious innovation, and green campus practices. This year, MAHE, Manipal Campus has been ranked as the No. 1 Private University in India, reaffirming its leadership in driving sustainable development in higher education.

Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham secures the second position, closely followed by BITS Pilani and IIT Patna, each demonstrating remarkable strides in environmental sustainability, renewable energy adoption, and waste management systems.

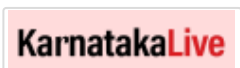

Introducing Distinctive Bands for Sustainable Leadership: The Green Rankings 2025 categorize the top-performing institutions into five distinct bands, offering a nuanced evaluation of sustainability performance across various indicators such as carbon footprint reduction, green infrastructure, community outreach, and integration of environmental consciousness into academic frameworks. The Platinum+ Band Institutions setting a global benchmark with exemplary green initiatives and sustainability best practices, and Platinum Band institutions recognizing institutions that have demonstrated consistent leadership in environmental sustainability.

MAHE, Manipal has demonstrated a relentless pursuit of sustainability by implementing innovative environmental programs, fostering awareness on campus, and taking proactive steps toward waste management and clean energy integration. Its unwavering dedication to creating a green campus ecosystem has placed it at the forefront of India's sustainable higher education landscape.

In addition to the Green Rankings 2025, R. World Institutional Rankings continues to set the standard with its OBE Rankings - India's leading private rankings dedicated to assessing Outcome-Based Education (OBE) practices. Recognized as one of the most credible private education-rankings agency in India, R.W I Rankings highlights institutions excelling in aligning academic programs with clearly defined learning outcomes, ensuring that graduates are equipped with the knowledge, skills, and competencies required by the industry and society.
